

With the rapid changes to travel rules around the globe and as part of our continued efforts to ensure safety and continuity of the greater community and the work we all do, PAEB2020 is going 100% virtual! Our keynotes, presentations and workshops will all be online. All our registered delegates will be able to present papers, attend sessions, ask questions, network with sponsors, take part in discussions and workshops virtually. While we were ecstatic to be able to welcome you all to sunny Dubai and disappointed that we will not be able to meet you all physically; we are confident that the remote conference from the safety and comfort of your homes will add tremendous scientific and social value, giving all of you and us opportunity to be creative and innovative in the digital space.

Registration Fees

Considerable reduction has been made to the conference fees to make it sustainable, fair and support the conference preparations and infrastructure we will be providing all delegates.

The virtual registration fee is €100 for ENAI members, and €150 for ALL International Delegates and AED300 for UAE local delegates (all-inclusive of UAE Federal Tax Authority's 5% VAT).

All delegates wanting to present and join sessions are required to complete registration and payment individually by the due date.

N/B Those delegates who have already completed their registration process, kindly note we will automatically refund the remainder to ensure you pay the reduced fees only. Our committee members will get in touch with you in this regards in the days to come.

Adjusted Deadlines:

- Extended Camera-Ready Abstract to include in abstract proceedings - 27 March 2020
- Full Paper Submission for review and consideration for Best Paper Awards - 10 April 2020
- Conference Fee payment - 30 March 2020
- Review of full papers - 7 May 2020
- Submission of final Camera-Ready Full Paper for inclusion in edited book - 30 June 2020

It is of utmost importance that our delegates support the conference and help us make it a success in the face of disruptions of global proportions by conforming to the following deadlines and completing the registration and payment process.

Technology

We envision delegates to use basic hardware and internet connections, using devices such as laptops or tablets with mic, speakers and/or webcams.

The conference will use Adobe Connect and/or Webex to conduct the live sessions virtually. In addition, we will make pre-recorded and recorded sessions available on the official website for all delegates to access, taking into consideration interruptions in internet connections and streaming.

For general information about the two software, kindly see the following LinkedIn Learning sites:

Webex <https://www.linkedin.com/learning/search?keywords=webex&u=74652914> and

Adobe Connect <https://www.linkedin.com/learning/search?keywords=adobe%20connect&u=74652914>

Delegates with accepted Abstracts and Posters

As we are going to be 100% virtual, we request all our delegates whose extended abstracts have been accepted to prepare your presentations as per the instructions below. We will NOT have "live" presentations to reduce disruption of streaming due to possible user load or connection issues. All presentations will be pre-recorded. Kindly see the attached tutorial on how to make a power point presentation into a video. YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sq1eOWtjywQ>

Extended Abstract Instructions

- Presentations should not be more than 15 minutes
- Presentation should be succinct and in English

Poster Instructions:

- Please prepare ONE slide poster
- Poster should be technical/scientific in nature
- As it is a digital poster, you may choose to add links to the poster
- Please see attached as sample for making a poster
- Save the poster as a PDF
- Record a 5-minute presentation for the poster to be made available along with the poster PDF for delegates.
To find out how to record using power point, please see the attached tutorial on how to make a power point presentation into a video. YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sq1eOWtjywQ>

Each author/speaker will be provided with a link that will be shared with delegates who wish to engage with the author. We envision this to be a live document that will generate list of questions, feedback, suggestions from the virtual audience that authors can address and take discussion forward via email, if required. This facility will be in addition to live discussions forums for presentations to provide further networking opportunities for all delegates.

Delegates with accepted Workshops

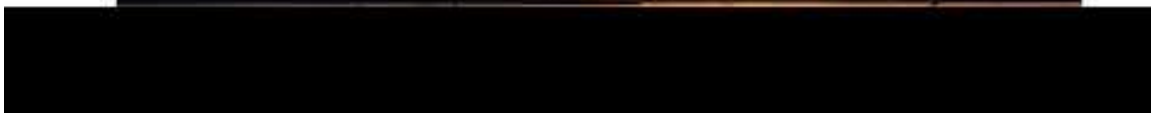

As we are going to be 100% virtual, we request all our delegates whose extended abstracts have been accepted to prepare your workshops for delivery online as per the instructions below. We would like to provide a "live" option for the workshops, therefore request delegates to prepare their workshop

- (a) so that it can be made available as a pre-recorded session, and
- (b) so that you may be able to run it interactively through Adobe Connect

Kindly see the attached tutorial on how to join and present here YouTube link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AD6Jv1WEfM4&t=55s>

Publications

Our promise to select two Best Papers for award are still in place. Based on submissions, two best papers will be chosen by the scientific committee and presented with one Handbook of Academic Integrity for each winning paper (courtesy SpringerNature) that will be shipped to the first author of each paper and cost borne by the conference; and the possibility of publication in the supporting journal with author processing fee-waiver, the International Journal for Educational Integrity (IJEI) (BMC, SpringerNature). The IJEI is indexed in Scopus, Emerging Sources Citation Index (ESCI) – Clarivate, Australian Education Index, CNKI, DOAJ, EBSCO Discovery Service, EBSCO Education Research Complete, EBSCO Education Source, EBSCO TOC Premier, ERIH PLUS, OCLC, Summon by ProQuest, The Philosopher's Index.

Further opportunities for top full text papers will be considered as chapters for the edited book titled “Integrity in Education for Future Happiness” for publication with Web of Science indexing and open-access privilege from Mendel University Press (Czech Republic) :

Khan, Z.R., Hill, C., Foltynek, T. (ed), Integrity in Education for Future Happiness, Mendel University Press, CZ

All accepted extended abstracts for presentations, posters and workshops will be published in our program booklet and made available through the website as an e-book.

Vote of Thanks

Through these unpredictable times, we wish everyone safe health and thank our partners, sponsors and delegates for your continued support in helping us maintain continuity, albeit with social distance:

Topic [Gradescope Webinar] Get Started with Gradescope for Remote Assessments

Description Due to widespread campus closures, many of you have reached out asking for guidance on how to deliver your assessments remotely. This task is challenging under normal circumstances; rushing to do this is harder still. In this webinar we will introduce Gradescope, help you set up a course, and share tips on how to conduct assessments remotely.

A recording will be shared with all registrants after the live session.
